

By a vote of 286-137, the House of Representatives passed H.R. 5811, the Electronic Communications Preservation Act, which would modernize the requirements of the Presidential Records Act and the Federal Records Act to ensure that vital electronic records are preserved.

Documents and Links

- Bill Summary: H.R. 5811, the Electronic Communications Preservation Act